1. I shared our comments with the BDCP lawyers group, for what its worth.
2. I've been playing tag with Mike B., to see if there is any comprehensive thoughts on all of this. He thinks that now Dave H. is on board, there may be some quicker federal thinking/sharing on Cal water issues. So we may want to see if that really comes to pass.
3. Given all that, I have no burning need to do outreach yet.

in response to your voicemail Carolyn ---- I had the fleeting thought last week (or week before) that we might offer to meet with the lead NEPA agencies for BDCP should they have questions about our letter. I've not initiated such a meeting, and in the meantime other events have overtaken us - most importantly the San Joaquin Admin draft and the Boards periodic review staff report. I'm thinking its not the most important thing for us to do now, unless you guys disagree? Of course, if anyone asks us to, we should.
